

JAMES FAURE WALKER

CV

James Faure Walker is a painter, digital artist, and writer. He has exhibited widely in Europe and the USA. In 1998 he won the 'Golden Plotter' at Computerkunst, Gladbeck, Germany. He has exhibited eight times in the SIGGRAPH Art Gallery. His 'Painting the Digital River: How an Artist Learned to Love the Computer', was published by Prentice Hall (USA) in 2006, and awarded a New England Book Show Award. He co-founded Artscribe magazine in 1976, and edited it for eight years. In 2002 he was awarded a Senior Research Fellowship by the AHRB. In 2013 he won the Royal Watercolour Society Award. He is the Honorary Curator of the RWS.
